

Program of International Conference 8 & 9 July 2016
Center for Ethics, LMU Munich, Germany
Geschwister-Scholl-Platz 1, room M210

GLOBAL JUSTICE AND GLOBAL HEALTH ETHICS
Exploring the influence of Iris Marion Young

7th of July: Pre-conference gathering from 19.30 on

8th of July: Workshop Day 1: Young's legacy and global justice

9.00 Registration
9.30 Welcome and opening

Chair: Elizabeth Kahn (Durham University)

10.00 Alison Jaggar (University of Colorado, Boulder): Agency, complicity, and the responsibility to resist global injustice
10.45 Maeve McKeown (Oxford University): The "social connection model" of responsibility: Some misconceptions
11.30 Coffee break
12.00 Jan-Christoph Heilinger (LMU Munich): Global relational egalitarianism. For and against 12.45 Lunch

Chair: Gillian Brock (University of Auckland)

14.30 Darrel Moellendorf (University of Frankfurt): Crisis transmission mechanisms and responsibility for financial crisis
15.15 Heather Widdows (University of Birmingham): Structural injustice and the global demands of beauty
16.00 End of first day
17.45 City walk through Munich.
Meeting point: Fountain in front of the main entrance
19.15 Conference dinner: Biergarten Paulaner am Nockherberg

9th of July: Workshop Day 2: Young's legacy and global health

Chair: Alison Thompson (University of Toronto)

- 9.30 Verina Wild (LMU Munich/University of Zurich): Migration, health and ethics: Exploring a Youngian perspective
- 10.15 Jonathan Wolff (University College London): Structural injustice, structural violence, and the social determinants of health
- 11.00 Coffee break
- 11.30 Lisa Eckenwiler (George Mason University, Fairfax): Place-making and health justice for ecological subjects
- 12.15 Lunch break

Chair: James Wilson (University College London)

- 14.00 Eszter Kollar (Goethe University Frankfurt): Global relational justice and disaster
- 14.45 Ryoa Chung (Université de Montréal): Gendered health vulnerabilities, structural and epistemic injustice
- 15.30 Coffee break
- 16.00 Agomoni Ganguli-Mitra (University of Edinburgh): Sex-selection and cultures: a structural account of gender injustice
- 16.45 Plenary discussion: The legacy of Iris Marion Young and future perspectives

17.15 Concluding remarks: Elizabeth Kahn (Durham University)

- 17.30 Farewell and end of the conference
- 19.30 After conference party

The conference is organized by Ryoa Chung, Lisa Eckenwiler, Jan-Christoph Heilinger & Verina Wild

The conference is funded by Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG), Münchener Kompetenzzentrum Ethik (MKE), and Freundeskreis des MKE e.V.

in cooperation with Chair of Philosophy IV and Institute of Ethics, History and Theory of Medicine, LMU Munich